

Wednesday, November 14, 2007

Reddwerks relocates offices

Austin Business Journal

Growing Austin-based supply chain management company Reddwerks Corp. has signed a sublease for nearly 21,000 square feet on Capital of Texas Highway.

Reddwerks is moving into 20,721 square feet under a six-year sublease with master tenant Level 3 Communications. The company is relocating from 12401 Research Blvd.

Reddwerks is an enterprise technology company that provides supply chain management for warehouses as large as 1.5 million square feet. On its Web site, the company reports year-over-year revenue growth of 350 percent.

Justin Bayne with the SkylesBayne Co. represented Reddwerks and Charles Dixon, Erin Morales and Nate Stricklen of CB Richard Ellis represented Level 3.